

Monthly Round Up

We're excited to share Volume 5, Issue 8 of our Student Services newsletter! We are already well into the month of August, so I encourage everyone to enjoy these final weeks of summer. In this issue, you'll find important updates, helpful resources, and promising opportunities to enrich and support your student journey at the Toronto School of Management.

I am pleased to report that the inaugural 2024 GUS Colleges Canada Summer Games was a great success. This two-day event was a spectacular display of athletic talent and school spirit from all four participating institutions, celebrating athletic prowess, teamwork, and school spirit. The 2024 GUS Canada Summer Games was definitely a highlight of the academic year, inspiring students to strive for excellence both on and off the field.

Announcements

1) For several of our activities and field trips, we have had students register and simply not show up. NOT SHOWING UP to an activity takes away a spot/seat that could have been reserved for other students that had a genuine interest in attending. Effective immediately, repeat offenders have been temporarily barred from attending college activities and will be automatically removed from registration for activities until further notice.

It is your responsibility to attend activities that you sign up for and to inform studentassociation@torontosom.ca of any cancellation 48 hours prior to departure.

2) You are invited to Set Up for Success: Student Immigration Information Session and Open House

We are delighted to invite you to Set Up for Success: Student Immigration Information Session and Open House on August 28, at 5:30 p.m., located on our campus at 22 College Street. This event is designed to help you discover new programs at TSOM to build toward your career goals. Additionally, we will provide key information on extending your study permit to facilitate your continued learning at TSOM.
